Pathways of Medieval France

BEAUTIFUL VILLAGES ALONG THE PILGRIMAGE ROAD

August 30 – September 11, 2019

Directed by Rachel Christophe Baker and Sandra Gaynor PhD, RN
We travel, initially, to lose ourselves; and we travel, next to find ourselves. We travel to open our hearts and eyes and learn more about the world than our newspapers will accommodate... And we travel, in essence, to become young fools again – to slow time down and get taken in, and fall in love once more.

— Pico Iyer

In this spirit of self-care, curiosity, and discovery, we invite you to join us on this voyage. The Pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela, also known in English as “The Way of St. James,” or in French as Le Chemin de Saint-Jacques, has existed for more than a thousand years. It was one of the most important pilgrimages in the Middle Ages.

This is a cultural tour featuring French villages and towns of artistic and historical significance along these pilgrimage roads. These roads are listed as World Heritage Sites by UNESCO. We will cover various areas of France such as the Auvergne, the Aveyron, Lot, and the Tarn-et-Garonne.

Our journey will begin in the beautiful city of Lyon before continuing to Le Puy-en-Velay, one of the starting points of the Pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela. As we meander along the pilgrimage roads, we’ll visit many “most beautiful villages in France,” a label awarded to exceptional villages that have a rich natural and cultural heritage. Our tour draws to a close in Toulouse, another important stop on the route to Santiago.

In addition to sightseeing, there will be time to savor simple pleasures and cultivate wellness—such as journaling, moments of conviviality, conscientious dining, and practicing the arts of looking and listening.

Most days there will be some free time to explore on your own.

We will travel by bus but this tour requires a fair amount of walking each day, with some of it on cobbled streets and uneven surfaces plus some walks that include strenuous uphill climbs or numerous steps.

Our group size will be limited to 20 travelers plus the two group leaders.

Rachel Christophe Baker is a native of France. She was born and raised near Versailles and has been living in Chicago for over 20 years. She teaches French at the Alliance Française of Chicago. She studied art history and is also an art appraiser. Since 2008, Rachel has created and led tours in various regions of France.

Sandra Gaynor PhD, RN Sandy has been a long-time francophile and traveled extensively and frequently in France, Spain and Scotland. After a career in nursing and education, she is currently using her experience in healthcare to assist refugees through medical case management.

This will be the sixth trip on which Sandra and Rachel have collaborated.
Since medieval times, Lyon has been one of France’s most important cities. From the time of Louis XI, Lyon was the center of the silk industry and rivaled Paris as a fashion center. Our morning guided tour will begin in what is known as the Fourvière district. The name of the hill comes from the old Roman forum. The view from the esplanade offers a magnificent view of the city of Lyon. From here, our guide will take us through the Rosaire gardens down to Old Lyon. We’ll have an opportunity to see one or more of the traboules (covered passageways), which were used to protect the bolts of silk. Our tour will end at the Cathedral of St. Jean. The afternoon is free to explore Lyon on your own. Two of the many interesting museums you might want to visit are the Musée des Tissus (Textile Museum) or the Institut Lumière (inventions of the Lumière Brothers and the story of the birthplace of cinematography). Lyon is the gastronomic capital of France, so you’ll have no problem finding wonderful restaurants for lunch and dinner—ranging from the traditional bouchons to gastronomic restaurants. (B)
02, MONDAY
Vienne, Le Puy-en-Velay

We’ll plan a leisurely late-morning departure from Lyon with a stop in the city of Vienne, located on a bend of the River Rhône. Its rich heritage has been preserved from Roman times with many impressive buildings including the Temple of Augustus Livia (built in the 1st century BC). After time for independent lunch and exploration, our journey takes us into the region known as the Auvergne. This is an area of France often referred to as La France profonde—a phrase that evokes the “deep” and profoundly “French” aspects of rural and village life. Our destination is Le Puy-en-Velay, located in the heart of the Massif Central in an impressive setting surrounded by high hills and the famous conical volcano forms of the region. This is one of the starting points for the Pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela. After hotel check-in we’ll have a group dinner at a local restaurant. (B, D)

03, TUESDAY
Le Puy-en-Velay

After an early breakfast, our day begins at 7:00 a.m. with the daily Pilgrim’s mass and blessing at the Cathedral of Notre-Dame du Puy to experience the departure of those about to set off on the journey. Afterwards, a local guide will meet us at the cathedral for a morning walking tour. After an independent lunch, there will be the option to hike along part of the “Way of St. James.” Another possibility is to walk to the Chapel of Saint Michel d’Aiguilhe. Be forewarned—there are 268 steps to get up to the 10th-century chapel! Tonight’s dinner is independent. (B)

04, WEDNESDAY
Estaing, Conques

Today’s travels take us through some spectacular scenery. We’ll make a stop in the village of Estaing, situated on the right bank of the River Lot. Estaing is one of the villages in the prestigious group, “the most beautiful villages of France.” It has kept its original medieval layout with beautifully preserved buildings. We’ll have time to walk around the village and have lunch. In the afternoon, we’ll continue to Conques, also designated as “one of the most beautiful villages of France.” With its preserved medieval buildings and lush forest setting, a visit to Conques is often compared to a journey back in time and space. After hotel check-in, there will be time to explore the town before our group dinner. Depending on the schedule, we may have an opportunity to attend a concert performance. (B, D)
05, Thursday
Conques, Figeac
This morning in Conques we’ll have a guided tour of the Abbey Church and its spectacular treasure. This Romanesque church was an important stop on the pilgrimage to Santiago. Its tympanum of the Last Judgement and carved capitals are masterpieces of medieval sculpture. In the treasury is the gold and bejeweled reliquary of Sainte Foy, the patron saint of the village. After our morning tour, we’ll travel to Figeac for independent lunch. The town of Figeac grew up around the 9th-century Abbey and its architectural heritage is stunning. Until the Hundred Years War, this was one of the most prosperous cities in southwest France. Either before or after hotel check-in, we have a guided tour at the Champollion Museum. The city of Figeac was the birthplace of Jean-François Champollion, who was the famous decipherer of Egyptian hieroglyphics using the Rosetta Stone. The collections of the museum tell the fascinating story of writing from around the world. Tonight’s dinner is independent. (B)

06, Friday
Excursion to picturesque towns in Aveyron — Najac and Villefranche-de-Rouergue, Figeac
A lovely excursion is planned for today with visits to two bastide towns in Aveyron. These were fortified towns built in the 13th and 14th centuries with a square in the center where religious and public life was carried out. Our morning visit and independent lunch break will be in Najac, another of “the most beautiful villages of France.” This perched village on an exceptionally long rocky ridge, stretches along a single street leading to an imposing château fort. Early afternoon, we’ll continue to Villefranche-de-Rouergue. This still-intact medieval village is a magnificent example of a bastide town with its square lined by covered arcades. Our group dinner will be in either Villefranche or back in Figeac. (B, D)

07, Saturday
Pech Merle, Saint-Cirq-Lapopie, Lauzerte
Today we’ll travel into the area known as the Lot. Our morning visit is to Pech Merle. This prehistoric cave features almost 800 images of 70 animals, including mammoths and bears with the famous painting of the “spotted horses.” From here, we’ll continue to Saint-Cirq-Lapopie for our lunch stop. Perched on a cliff 300 feet above the river Lot, it is one of the most important sites in the Lot Valley and another of “the most beautiful villages in France.” Enclosed by fortified gates, the village features a chateau, and beautiful old houses whose traditional facades were built between the 13th and 16th centuries, as well as many artisans’ shops. In the afternoon, we’ll continue to Lauzerte, a hilltop village overlooking the valleys and hills of the Quercy. In a beautiful garden, we will enjoy the game jeu de l’oie, creatively illustrating the story of the pilgrimage. After time for an aperitif in the main square surrounded by old stone and timber-framed houses, we will check into our nearby hotel for a two-night stay. Dinner is included at the hotel. (B, D)
08, SUNDAY
Cahors, Lauzerte

Our excursion today takes us back toward the Lot, with its main town Cahors as our destination. Founded in Roman times, Cahors became in the Middle Ages a major European center of trade and finance. This is also the historic home of the deep red wines made from the Malbec grapes. Our morning guided walking tour will take us through the narrow medieval streets and secret gardens, Renaissance homes, and Cathedral St. Etienne. We will also take time to walk across the famous bridge, Pont Valentré, with its 3 fortified towers, dating from the 14th century and also listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

After our tour and time for independent lunch, we'll return to the hotel in Lauzerte with time to relax at the pool or spa before dinner. (B,D)

09, MONDAY
Moissac, Toulouse

After breakfast, we'll travel south with a morning stop in the quaint town of Moissac located on the banks of the Tarn & Garonne canal. Founded in the 7th century, the Abbey St. Pierre was and still is a major stop on the route to Santiago. We'll have a guided visit of the site. The tympanum is a masterpiece of Romanesque art. The serene cloister, reputed to be one of the most beautiful in the world, has been completely preserved and has 76 beautifully decorated capitals. Both the abbey and its cloister are listed as UNESCO World Heritage sites. After time for an independent lunch, we’ll continue to Toulouse. After hotel check-in, it will be time for an independent dinner. (B)

10, TUESDAY
Toulouse

This morning, as our pilgrimage begins to draw to a close, we’ll visit the Romanesque Basilica of Saint-Sernin, an important stop on the route to Santiago. We'll also visit Les Jacobins, a church founded by the Preaching Friars, an order created to help in the fight against the Cathars. After these visits, there will be free time before our Farewell Dinner.

(B,D)

11, WEDNESDAY
Transfer to the airport for the return flight

All too soon, it's time to say au revoir. We’ll transfer to the Toulouse airport for the flight to Paris, connecting with our return flight to Chicago. (B)
