MAKING YOUR BUCKET LIST A REALITY

WORLD TRAVELERS, tropical vacationers, and first-time adventurers know booking and planning a vacation by yourself can be exhausting. The sheer volume of options and information available is staggering. Enter Witte Travel, the one-stop-shop for your next adventure.

"People don't always realize there are a lot of different factors to compare and coordinate, such as flight schedules, hotel amenities and room categories, dining reservations, off-site excursions, and so on," said Witte Travel manager, Shelley Kohtz. "If you make choices based solely on price without taking everything else into consideration, you're likely to find that the vacation you spent so much time planning and saving for doesn't live up to your expectations. But we'll take the time to get to know you and listen to your personal preferences and priorities. Then we'll plan a vacation for you that checks all of those boxes without going over budget."

The Witte Travel team is comprised of well-traveled industry experts who have spent their careers exploring and studying their favorite spots in the Caribbean, Mexico, Europe, Alaska, the South Pacific and other destinations around the world. Their first-hand expertise, combined with their direct connections to the industry's leading travel suppliers, is why the advisors at Witte Travel consistently deliver exceptional travel experiences and the best value.

Kohtz adds many travelers are looking for customized, immersive, culturally rich experiences. Now more than ever, people rely on travel advisors to make their bucket-list vacation plans a reality, and to ensure that everything goes smoothly along the way. "If something unexpected comes up during your trip, all you need to do is call us," said Kohtz. "We'll work with our contacts to get your issue resolved as quickly as possible."

Next time you're thinking about planning a vacation, save yourself hours of research and uncertainty. Instead, enlist the assistance and professional support of the team at Witte Travel.

"Our clients tell us all the time, 'I don't know why I didn't work with you before!' because once you book a trip with us, you see just how much stress is eliminated," said Kohtz. "Everyone should be able to enjoy their vacation time!"
