OCTOBER 2020
Thursday, October 8
Departure
Our inspirational tour begins! We’ll meet at the airports in Chicago, Ottawa, or Toronto to check in for our evening transatlantic flight. Other departure cities are available upon request. (D-in flight)

Friday, October 9
Arrive Tel Aviv
After changing planes in Europe, we’ll arrive at Israel’s Ben Gurion Airport. We’ll meet our Israeli tour guide and transfer to our nearby hotel to check in for a one-night stay. Our long travel day ends with a delicious dinner and good night’s sleep. (B-in flight, D)

Saturday, October 10
Caesarea Maritima, Mount Precipice, Nazareth, Mount Arbel, Sea of Galilee
Our first full day in Israel begins by driving to Caesarea, a majestic port built by King Herod, where Paul landed on his 2nd and 3rd missionary journeys and where he was also imprisoned for two years. We’ll then continue to Mount Precipice on the edge of Nazareth for a great view of the Jerzeel Valley to the south and Nazareth to the north—the region where Jesus spent much of his life and ministry. We then travel to the Arbel National Park and Nature Reserve for an easy walk to Carob Lookout and Kinneret Lookout, where we’ll be rewarded with magnificent views over the Sea of Galilee. End the day just outside Tiberias on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, where we’ll check into our hotel for a three-night stay, followed by our first evening study session and dinner. (B, D)

Sunday, October 11
Tiberias, Magdala, Tabgha, Capernaum, Chorazin, Bethsaida, Mount of Beatitudes, Sea of Galilee
We’ll spend the day exploring the Galilee region where many New Testament stories about Jesus took place. Our day begins with a memorable boat ride on the Sea of Galilee, as well as a visit to the Yigal Alon Museum at Nof Ginosar to see the “Jesus Boat” (1st-century fishing boat recovered from the mud of the Sea of Galilee). We’ll then visit the 1st-century synagogue at Magdala and also Capernaum, where a 1st-century synagogue lies beneath a Franciscan church, and where the so-called “House of Peter” was discovered, along with an honorific column mentioning the Zebedees. We’ll then see the remains of Chorazin (houses, ritual baths, and a synagogue), which Jesus visited—and cursed for its unbelief; as well as Bethsaida, the birthplace of apostles Peter, Andrew, and Philip. Jesus performed several miracles here, including healing a blind man (Mark 8:22-26) and feeding 5,000 (Luke 9:10-17). We end the day at the Mount of Beatitudes, where Dr. Weima will lead a worship service. Time permitting, we’ll also visit the Church of the Primacy of Peter at Tagbha, which commemorates Jesus’ final words to Peter (John 21:1-24); Finally, it’s back to the hotel to enjoy another delicious meal. (B, D)

Monday, October 12
Caesarea Philippi, Kursi, Mount Tabor, Sea of Galilee
We’ll travel north to Caesarea Philippi (Banias) at the base of Mount Hermon, the location of the largest springs that feed the Jordan River. Here, amid shrines to the Greek god Pan and other pagan deities, we are reminded of Jesus’ question, “Who do people say I am?” and Peter’s important confession: “You are the Messiah, the Son of God!” Next follows a visit to Kursi on the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee—a possible location for the healing of the Demon-Possessed Man living in the tombs (Mark 5:1-20). We’ll end the day at Mount Tabor and the Church of Transfiguration (Mark 9:2-13), before returning to our hotel near Tiberias for another study session and dinner. (B, D)

Tuesday, October 13
Bet Shean, Jerusalem
Traveling south on our way to Jerusalem, we’ll stop first at Bet Shean, the largest archaeological site in Israel with impressive remains dating from the 1st and 2nd centuries AD. It is one of the Decapolis—the ten Greek cities in the region where Jesus also ministered to Gentiles. Upon arrival in Jerusalem, we head first to the Israel Museum to see the Jerusalem model for a helpful overview of the ancient city. Here we also visit the Shrine of the Book (museum housing the Dead Sea Scrolls). We’ll then take an exciting walk through Hezekiah’s Tunnel (1/3-mile long) to the Pool of Siloam, which was involved in Jesus’ healing of a blind man (John 9:1-12). Check in at the hotel in Jerusalem for a four-night stay, study session, and dinner. (B, D)

Wednesday, October 14
Herodium, Bethlehem, Jerusalem
We go first to the Herodium—the impressive, volcano-like palace-fortress of King Herod and the place from which he likely dispatched the soldiers responsible for slaying the infants of Bethlehem (Matt. 2:16-18). Here we see the swimming pool and surrounding portico, the rooms of the palace, synagogue, the tunnel and underground water cistern, theater, and the recently discovered tomb of Herod. We’ll continue to Bethlehem for a visit to Bethlehem Bible College (BBC), where we’ll have a lecture on “The Situation of the Palestinian Church.” We’ll then visit the Church of the Nativity. Upon return to Jerusalem, we’ll visit the Wohl Archaeological Museum, which contains the remains of several wealthy homes of the priests dating back to the time of Jesus. The site contains geometric patterned mosaic... floors, still-vibrant frescoes, costly glassware, ceramics, and private Jewish ritual baths, all of which provide a peek into the life of the rich in the time of Jesus. We’ll make a brief stop at the Western Wall and then visit the Jerusalem Archaeological Park and Davidson Center to see the Temple Mount excavations. Our day concludes with dinner at the hotel. (B, D)

Thursday, October 15

Jerusalem

We spend a full day in Jerusalem, focusing on sites connected with the final week of Jesus’ life. We begin outside the city walls at the Mount of Olives, descending on the road Jesus traveled on Palm Sunday. We will stop for times of reflection at the Dominus Flevit chapel (“The Lord Wept,” Luke 19:37-42), and the Garden of Gethsemane. We enter the ancient city near St. Anne’s church, where originally was located the Pool of Bethesda (healing of the paralytic, John 5:1-15). This miracle is one of the “signs” that Jesus did to reveal his true identity. We next are reminded of Jesus’ suffering, as we follow the “Good Friday” steps of our Savior: we walk under the Arch of the Ecce Homo Church (“Behold the Man,” John 19:5), and down the Via Dolorosa (“way of sorrows”) to the two places claiming to house his tomb: The Church of the Holy Sepulchre and the Garden Tomb, where we hope to have a simple worship service that commemorates the suffering and death of Christ. Another study session and dinner conclude this amazing day. (B, D)

Friday, October 16

Masada, Ein Gedi, Qumran, Dead Sea, Jerusalem

Today involves several extraordinary sites located outside Jerusalem. We’ll first drive to the most famous palace-fortress of Herod the Great: Masada. After reaching the summit by cable car, we will see the large bathhouse, massive storehouse complex, synagogue, swimming pool, water cisterns, and, of course, Herod’s palace, which is spread out over three terraces. Afterward, we enjoy a brief rest at the spring-fed oasis of Ein Gedi before proceeding to Qumran, the site where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered—scrolls that are of the greatest importance for proving the reliability of the text of the Old Testament. After this visit, we’ll have an opportunity to experience floating in the Dead Sea. We then return to Jerusalem, stopping briefly en route for impressive views of Wadi Quelt, the Judean Wilderness, and St. George’s Monastery. We enjoy dinner and pack for our morning departure to Jordan. (B, D)
Saturday, October 17
Border Crossing, Bethany Beyond the Jordan, Jerash, Amman

Early this morning, we’ll travel to the Allenby/King Hussein Bridge to cross into Jordan and arrive in Bethany Beyond the Jordan, the most likely site where John the Baptist lived, preached, and baptized hundreds of followers, including Jesus. We’ll enjoy a sack lunch on the bus as we continue north to Jerash (Garasa), the best preserved Graeco-Roman city in the Middle East and a place referred to in the Bible as “region of Gerasenes” (Mark 5:1; Luke 8:26). The well-preserved colonnaded streets, plazas, temples, theaters, paved pathways and numerous Byzantine churches make Jerash the second most popular historical destination for tourists after Petra. We’ll then travel south to Amman (Philadelphia) to check in at the hotel and enjoy a delicious dinner. (B, L, D)

Sunday, October 18
Mount Nebo, Madaba, Petra

We’ll travel to Mount Nebo, where Moses before his death saw the Promised Land of Canaan (Deut. 32:48-52; 34:1-8) and where we’ll enjoy a spectacular view of the Dead Sea and the Jordan Valley. Continue to nearby Madaba to see the famous mosaic map located in St. George Orthodox Church—the earliest religious map in any form to survive from antiquity. We’ll make a scenic stop at the fortress of Machaerus (Mukawir), yet another palace-fortress of Herod the Great. Here Herod’s son, Antipas, had John the Baptist imprisoned for two years and then beheaded after Salome’s fateful dance (Matt. 14:1-12). Drive south to Petra to check in for a one-night stay, worship service, and dinner. (B, D)

Monday, October 19
Petra, Amman

Petra’s marvelously preserved structures are now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. We’ll begin at the Visitors’ Center and enter via the Siq (narrow ¾-mile canyon that serves as an entrance to the ancient city) to see such awe-dropping sites as the Treasury (actually the tomb of King Aretas IV of 2 Cor. 11:32), the Street of Facades, the theater, the Royal Temple, Petra Church, the Great Temple, Palace of the Pharaoh’s Daughter, and (if you can do the 800-step climb) the impressive “Monastery.” We then return to Amman by way of the King’s Highway, the world’s oldest continuously used transportation route. A farewell dinner and final “debriefing” session is planned in Amman, giving us time to repack and rest for our journey home. (B, D)

Tuesday, October 20
Return

In the middle of the night, we’ll transfer to the Queen Alia International Airport to check in for our flights home. Our trip following in the footsteps of Jesus has certainly been instructive, inspirational, and memorable! (Meals-in flight)
