May 22 – June 2, 2023

Led by Dr. Jeffrey A. D. Weima

Walk in the footsteps of the apostles Peter, Paul, and Mark during the day and study their New Testament writings and lives at night!

Travel by deluxe motorcoach to biblical and other ancient sites in Italy that are connected to each of these apostles.

Highlights include visits to the Vatican with its Sistine Chapel and St. Peter's Cathedral; the impressive monuments of ancient Rome (Colosseum, Pantheon, Arch of Constantine, Arch of Titus, Forum, Catacombs, Pantheon, and Mamertine Prison—where, according to tradition, Paul and Peter were held); the city of Pompeii preserved by Mt. Vesuvius' eruption; and St. Mark's Basilica in Venice. The tour also involves visits to other sites of historical and cultural importance such as Assisi (home of St. Francis), Florence (location of Michelangelo's David and other Renaissance treasures), and Ravenna with its stunning 5th-6th century mosaics.

Some evenings feature a study session that deals with the ministry of the apostles Peter, Paul, and Mark. Join host Jeff Weima, professor of New Testament at Calvin Theological Seminary and leading biblical scholar, for this inspirational tour.

May/June 2023

Monday, May 22 Departure

The big day has arrived! Before it is possible to follow in the footsteps of the apostles Peter, Paul, and Mark, we must first travel to Italy. We'll gather in Chicago to check in for our transatlantic flight. Our adventure is beginning! (D-in flight)

① Pompeii

② Amalfi Coast

Cover: Florence

Tuesday, May 23 Arrive Naples > Pompeii

After changing planes, we'll touch down in Naples. Welcome to Italy! Following customs formalities, we'll board the waiting motorcoach and transfer to Pompeii, our home base for the next three nights. The rest of the afternoon is free to freshen up, relax, or explore the grounds. We'll end the day with a brief orientation session and a delicious evening meal. (B-in flight, D)

Wednesday, May 24 Amalfi Coast > Pompeii

This morning we'll take a scenic drive along the rugged and spectacular Amalfi Coast, which ranks among the most scenic areas in the world and is known for its coastal resort towns. Since our large tour bus is not allowed on this winding narrow road, we will reach the center of Positano by a smaller shuttle bus. We'll continue to Amalfi and then travel by boat to Maiori. Our day includes a limoncello tasting in Amalfi and concludes back in Pompeii, where we'll have an evening study session and dinner. (B, D)

Thursday, May 25 Pompeii > Mount Vesuvius > Pompeii

The morning will be spent in Pompeii, where our local guide leads us on a fascinating tour of Città Morta—the Dead City. Buried by fifteen feet of ash from the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in AD 79, Pompeii offers a unique opportunity to go back in time 2,000 years and get a very clear picture of what everyday life was like around the time of the apostles Peter, Paul, and Mark. Some of the impressive things we see include paved city streets laid out carefully in the Hippodamian grid plan; a theater where 5,000 people could watch Greek and Roman plays; an amphitheater that seated all the 20,000 citizens of the city who came to watch the gladiator fights; the palaestra—the large, open and columned courtyard where the gladiators and other athletes would exercise; public baths with their three pools of cold, lukewarm, and hot water; and the Forum—the political, commercial, and religious center of the city with its municipal buildings, marketplace, and temples. Many homes of the wealthy are also well preserved with their impressive courtyards, gardens, and mosaics. Perhaps most memorable, however, are the plaster casts of the bodies of those citizens who failed to escape and so perished along with the city. After we visit this extraordinary ancient site, we drive up to Mount Vesuvius (4,200 feet) where we walk around the edge of its massive crater and enjoy a panoramic view over the valley and Bay of Naples. We then return to our hotel for a study session and dinner. (B, D)

Friday, May 26

Naples > Pozzuoli (Puteoli) > Rome

We will get an early start today and drive to Naples for a guided tour of the National Archaeological Museum, one of the most impressive museums of antiquities in the world. It is of prime importance for the study of Greek and Roman sculpture, but also houses a remarkable collection of artifacts recovered from the buried city of Pompeii. A short drive to the west brings us to the ancient seaport of Pozzuoli (or Puteoli). The apostle Paul landed at this port on his prison journey to Rome and spent one week here with local Christians (Acts 28:13-14). Among the Roman remains here are the third largest amphitheater and the ruins of the Serapeum, which is not, as the name suggests, a temple to the Egyptian god Serapis, but a macellum or marketplace. After time for lunch, we begin our journey to Rome. As we pass by the nearby city of Capua, we will tell the story of Spartacus, who led a three-year revolt of some 100,000 slaves before finally being defeated. Capua was not only the place where Spartacus started the slave revolt, but it also marked the spot where 6,000 captured slaves at the end of the revolt were crucified on crosses every 100 feet along the entire 125-mile highway (Via Appia) leading to Rome. We parallel this ancient highway in our drive to Rome, the "Eternal City," where we will spend the next three nights. We hope to have a study session on the bus during a break in the drive. We'll end our day with dinner. (B, D)

Saturday, May 27 Rome

Today will involve a walking tour of the most important monuments from the Roman period, starting at the Colosseum, which is the largest amphitheater in the ancient world. One of the most recognizable buildings of Rome, it was once the scene of gladiatorial contests, mock naval battles, and fights pitting men against animals. We walk next to the Arch of Constantine, then the Arch of Titus, and finally through the Roman Forum. This commercial, political, and religious center was originally constructed some 2,500 years ago. Yet the ancient Senate, temples, basilicas, and triumphal arches are still impressive today. Exiting the Forum, we stop briefly at the Mamertine Prison, the most ancient prison in the city. According to Christian tradition, both the apostle Peter and Paul were imprisoned here. Our visit to the Roman Forum ends at the smallest of Rome's seven hills, but its most important—the Capitoline (Capital) Hill. Here the Temple of Jupiter once stood, of which only the foundations remain. We'll then walk to the Pantheon, which was dedicated to "all the gods" (Greek: pantheon). Its 141-foot-high dome was the largest in the world until the Florence Cathedral was built in 1436. If time allows, we'll visit the Ara Pacis ("Altar of Peace"), originally built in 13 BC to commemorate the peace that Augustus established within the Empire. It was marvelously reconstructed from 1937-1938 and is housed in a beautiful museum that was built in 2006. Next, the traditional location of the apostle Paul's death and burial awaits: the "St. Paul Outside the Wall" church. This beautiful church is the largest in Rome after St. Peter's. The tomb of Paul is believed to be beneath the altar, where there is a 1st-century tomb surrounded by Christian and pagan burials. We'll have a brief study session on the bus by the church. We'll return to the hotel and have dinner at a nearby restaurant. (B, D)

Sunday, May 28
Vatican City > Rome

You have seen images of the Vatican on television and in movies, but today you will witness it in person! The Vatican is actually a small (109 acres) yet powerful independent state that is the heart of the Roman Catholic Church. We'll begin with a guided tour of the fantastic Vatican Museums, which are filled with almost incomprehensible treasures. The highlight of our visit will be the Sistine Chapel, whose splendid vault was painted by Michelangelo and illustrates the great biblical stories of Creation, the Flood, and the Last Judgment. We also visit the impressive St. Peter's Square and St. Peter's Basilica, a masterpiece built between the 15th and 17th centuries on the site of an earlier church dating from the time of Emperor Constantine. The massive interior is breathtaking, and it contains many works of art, most notably Michelangelo's Pieta—

the moving sculpture of Mary holding in her lap the body of Jesus after the crucifixion. After free time for lunch, we'll visit the Catacombs of San Callisto. The catacombs were used by the early Christians as underground cemeteries outside the city walls since burial within the city was strictly forbidden. The soft volcanic tufa rock underneath Rome is highly suitable for tunneling and these easily quarried catacombs provided the space for thousands of Christians to be buried from the 1st to 5th centuries. From here, we'll have the option of being dropped off at Piazza Navona to do some exploring around the city or at the hotel. The evening will be free to choose from one of Rome's many restaurants for an independent dinner. (B)

Monday, May 29
Assisi > Florence

We'll drive north to Assisi today, a beautifully situated walled town best known as the home of St. Francis. This 12th-century saint, who as a rich noble dreamed of a military career but who was converted following an illness, renounced a life of luxury, and established the Franciscan order of monks devoted to serving the sick and the poor. The picturesque Medieval town of Assisi contains many interesting buildings. There is the Temple of Minerva (the Greek goddess Athena), which is now a church, but still retains six fluted columns dating back to Roman times. There is also the Church of St. Clare, a spiritual contemporary of St. Francis who founded the Order of the Poor Ladies. This church houses a Byzantine cross that supposedly spoke to St. Francis. The key building, however, is the Church of St. Francis (1228), which contains the body of the saint. The upper level of the church contains 28 frescoes by Giotto, the famous Italian painter, depicting key scenes from the life of St. Francis. The lower level also consists of impressive frescoes by numerous late medieval painters. We then drive further north to Florence, our home for the next two nights. Our centrally located hotel makes it convenient for us to explore this most beautiful town of the Renaissance. Our full day ends with another interesting study session and dinner at a restaurant near the hotel. (B, D)

Tuesday, May 30
Florence

Our guided tour of Florence provides us with an overview of the most important religious structures in the city. We start with a visit to the Galleria dell'Accademia, which houses masterpieces of Michelangelo, most notably his amazing David. Our tour includes the Duomo—the Cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore, one of the largest churches in the world and a symbol of the city's power and wealth in the 13th and 14th centuries. The magnificent dome by Brunelleschi is world famous, as is the campanile (bell tower) designed by Giotto. Across the street, we'll see the Baptistery with its famous bronze doors—the Gates of Paradise, sculpted by Ghiberti. We'll also tour the Uffizi Museum, one of the world's greatest collections of Renaissance art housed in a palace designed by Vasari. Its fabulous collections boast the work of Giotto, Cimabue, Botticelli, Raphael, Michelangelo, da Vinci, and many others. During free time in the afternoon, there are many wonderful choices: the iconic Ponte Vecchio bridge (1345) across the Arno River, the Bargello Museum containing gorgeous sculptures from leading artists of the Renaissance era, the Boboli Gardens, the Palazzo Vecchio (the old city hall), or simply enjoy a gelato while people-watching in one of the city's quaint squares. The evening is at leisure for an independent dinner. (B)

Wednesday, May 31
Ravenna > Venice-Mestre

Today we'll head northeast to the coastal town of Ravenna, renowned for its stunning 5th-6th century mosaics. Three stops are planned: the Mausoleum of Galla Placidia, the Basilica di San Vitale, and the Basilica de Sant' Apollinare Nuovo. There will also be free time to walk around this pedestrian-friendly town, which boasts no less than eight early Christian monuments on the UNESCO World Heritage List. Continuing north, we'll arrive in Mestre—our mainland home base for visiting the island city of Venice. The day ends with a final "debriefing" session and dinner at a nearby restaurant, where we reflect together on the many magnificent sites and experiences enjoyed on this tour. (B, D)

Thursday, June 1
Venice > Murano > Venice-Mestre

Our last full day in Italy involves the amazing island city of Venice! Following a short train trip to the island, we'll take a boat and then walk to St. Mark's Square, where a local guide will join us for a tour of St. Mark's Basilica. This church, which houses the relics of the gospel writer, represents a mixture of Byzantine and western architecture with splendid mosaics throughout the interior. We'll also visit the nearby Doges' Palace, once the residence of the city's rulers. This afternoon, we will take a boat to the small island of Murano, located just over a mile from Venice, for a glass factory tour. World-renowned glass products have been made here ever since the 10th century. Returning to central Venice, the remaining hours are ours to revel in the atmosphere of this unique city, take a gondola ride through the canals, visit the Academy of Fine Arts, or simply browse the shops. Our day and trip end with a farewell dinner at a restaurant. (B, D)

Friday, June 2
Return

Early this morning, we'll transfer to the Marco Polo Airport to check in for our flights home. The Gospel Comes to Italy has certainly been an instructive, inspirational, and memorable trip! (B, Lin flight)

Documentation: Passports, Visas, and Travel Consent for Minors. All U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport book to travel internationally. If you already have a passport book, check its expiration date now since the country visited on this tour requires passports to be valid for at least six months beyond the traveler's intended return date. If your passport is due to expire earlier, you will need to obtain a new one. If you do not have a passport book or need a new one, apply as soon as possible. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special requirements. We will check the requirements for non-U.S. citizens at the time they register and again approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check.

When travelling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry at least two forms of acceptable identification in order to board a flight found <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. Examples: DHS-designated enhanced driver's license, U.S. Passport, a foreign government passport. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are strongly encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. It has become increasingly necessary to possess such a note, and will save time if questions arise departing from the U.S. or to exit a foreign country. In order to download a sample minor consent form go to: <https://www.us-passport-service-guide.com/minor-travel-consent-form.html>. The sample form is a guide only. Parents who share custody of their children should carry copies of the legal custody documents. These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines' requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet. Portage of luggage is provided at hotels to the greatest extent possible. Portage is not provided at airports and at hotels that do not have porters. Let your tour personnel know if you need assistance with your luggage.

Mobility Concerns. Sightseeing on Witte tours almost always includes walking. Visits to historical places often mean climbing stairs and walking on uneven surfaces or cobblestones. The Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") is only applicable within the U.S., and facilities for disabled individuals are limited outside its borders. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need such assistance. Motorized scooters and wheelchairs are unsuitable for many trips. Transportation services, including many tour motor coaches, are not equipped with wheelchair ramps. Handicap accessibility is not always available. Witte tour personnel are not able to provide attendant services.

Consult your physician if you have any concerns about your ability to participate.

Time away from the tour. Advise Witte in writing at least 45 days before departure if you plan to spend some time away from the tour. Wherever possible, you will be credited for missed hotel nights.

Final tour documents—including itinerary, hotel list, passenger list, flight schedules with departure instructions, and luggage tags—are sent about 10 days prior to departure. Flight tickets are usually made available at the airport at check-in.

Limitations of Responsibility and Disclosure. The trip outlined herein has been contracted with Michelangelo International Travel. Witte acts solely as a booking agent for disclosed principal supplier hotels, airlines, air charters, bus companies, ground transportation, cruise lines, boat purveyors or owners, and other independent contractors providing accommodations, transportation, and/or other services ("supplier(s)"), and is not the source or provider of the travel services. Each of these supplier companies is an independent entity with its own management, and is not subject to the control of Witte. Participant is advised that the suppliers whose names appear in travel documentation are those actually responsible for providing the travel services purchased, and consents to the use of those suppliers, and understands and agrees each supplier's Terms and Conditions are contained in printed form and are set forth on their respective Web sites, which govern the transaction. All bookings are accepted by Witte as agent for the travel suppliers on your itinerary. The transportation, accommodations and other services provided by the identified sea, ground, and air operator suppliers offered are subject to the terms and conditions contained in the tickets, exchange orders or vouchers issued by them and/or their suppliers, including Terms and Conditions on their respective Web sites.

BECAUSE WITTE ACTS AS AGENT FOR DISCLOSED PRINCIPAL SUPPLIERS, AND DOES NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO CONTROL THE OPERATIONS OF SUCH INDEPENDENT OPERATORS AND SUPPLIERS, YOU AGREE WITTE IS NOT LIABLE FOR ANY PERSONAL INJURY OR PROPERTY DAMAGE, WHICH MAY ARISE OUT OF THESE SERVICES. WITTE HEREBY DISCLAIMS ANY LIABILITY WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, PUNITIVE, SPECIAL CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL OR INDIRECT DAMAGES, IN CONNECTION WITH THE GOODS OR SERVICES PROVIDED BY ANY PRINCIPAL SUPPLIER BOOKING THROUGH WITTE'S OFFICE OR THROUGH THEIR WEB SITE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LIABILITY FOR ANY ACT, ERROR, OMISSION, INJURY, LOSS, ACCIDENT, DELAY OR IRREGULARITY WHICH MAY BE INCURRED THROUGH THE FAULT, NEGLIGENCE, WILFUL ACTS, OMISSIONS OR OTHERWISE OF SUCH SUPPLIER, OR OF ANY SUPPLIER OR THEIR RESPECTIVE EMPLOYEES, AGENTS, SERVANTS, OR REPRESENTATIVES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THEIR FAILURE TO DELIVER OR THEIR PARTIAL OR INADEQUATE DELIVERY OF SERVICES, FUEL INCREASES, AND OTHER MATTERS OUTSIDE OF WITTE CONTROL, AND PARTICIPANT HEREBY EXONERATES WITTE FROM ANY LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO THE SAME.

Witte, its agents, sponsors, organizers and employees shall not be responsible for any injury, loss, damage, accident, delay, irregularity or expense arising from strikes, weather, sickness, acts of war or terrorism, governmental restrictions or regulations or from any act or omission on the part of any individual or company furnishing transportation, accommodations or any other services to the tour participants; absent gross negligence, Witte shall not be responsible for any injuries, death, damages, loss or delay by any means of transportation or by reason of any event beyond its actual control.

Weather conditions, including but not limited to the presence or absence of snow, sunshine, and rainfall are not guaranteed to occur or not occur, and are outside of Witte's control. Volcanic eruptions, ash clouds, and wind may be characterized as an adverse weather condition or a natural disaster by suppliers and your travel insurance company, which is beyond the control of Witte.

Witte shall not assume any responsibility for any air and/or ground schedule changes.

Witte reserves the right to make alterations in the itinerary as it deems necessary.

Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" means, in relation to Witte, any circumstances beyond the reasonable control of Witte, (including, but without limitation, acts of God, explosion, tidal waves and flood, tempest, forceful wind, earthquakes, fire or accident, hostilities, war or threat of war declared or undeclared, acts or threats of terrorism, sabotage, insurrection, riots, strikes, civil disturbance, requisition, epidemic, sickness, quarantine, government intervention, invasion, act of foreign enemies, mobilization, embargo, weather conditions, defects in machinery and vehicles, delay, wildlife, contamination by radio-activity from any nuclear fuel or from any nuclear waste, or other untoward occurrences).

Witte shall not be deemed to be in breach of these terms and conditions or otherwise be liable to you, by reason of delay in performance, or by non-performance, of any of its obligations hereunder to the extent that any such delay or non-performance is due to any Force Majeure.

If Witte, and/or any of its travel suppliers, are affected by Force Majeure, they shall be entitled to, and may in their sole and absolute discretion, vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the trip. Payment of any refund by Witte to you as a result of the non-performance of any obligations due to Force Majeure shall remain in its sole and absolute discretion, although Witte shall use its reasonable efforts to reimburse you where possible. However, Witte shall be entitled to deduct from any refund recoverable the reasonable actual and potential costs to Witte of the Force Majeure and applicable cancellation fees.

Regarding civil unrest, once Witte has investigated the prevailing situation, as it deems fit, it shall remain in Witte's sole and absolute discretion whether to proceed with the trip. You may in such circumstances cancel the trip subject to Witte's and each supplier's terms and conditions.

In case of insufficient participation, geopolitical, or natural cause, or other circumstances beyond its control to the extent travel services cannot be provided wholly or partially, Witte may cancel the tour. In such cases, Witte will use its best efforts to supply alternative services and accommodations, and no refunds will be granted provided that the alternatives are comparable to the original services and accommodations included in the tour cost. In the event of cancellation of the tour by Witte, its liability will be limited to a refund in full of all monies paid by the participants. If available, Witte will offer an alternative trip, which the participants may accept or reject.
