

C.S. Lewis & Other Gifts of the British Isles

September 21 – October 2, 2026

Hosted by Mark & Lori Vermaire

Embark on an unforgettable journey through the rich literary and cultural heritage of the U.K.!

Delve into the beautiful and fascinating world and words of C.S. Lewis, the gifted and prolific author. Along the way, explore places associated with other famous literary figures, including J.R.R. Tolkien, Jane Austen, and Charles Dickens.

Our adventure begins in dynamic Belfast, Northern Ireland, the birthplace of C.S. Lewis, along with the Antrim Coast where his family vacationed. We continue to England, where he was educated and spent much of his adult life. During our travels, retired pastor and Lewis expert Mark Vermaire will help us see how Lewis's stories enchant, intrigue, and prod us to consider our own faith and life.

We stand in awe of the Giant's Causeway and ancient Stonehenge; stroll through the charming university cities; take in the rolling hills and picturesque stone villages of The Cotswolds; and delight in the vibrancy and elegance of London.

Don't miss this unique opportunity!

SEPTEMBER 2026

Monday, Sept. 21

Departure

The day of departure has arrived! We meet at the airport in San Diego to check in for the transatlantic flight (other departure cities available upon request). We're on our way! (D-in flight)

Tuesday, Sept. 22

Arrive Belfast

After changing planes in London, we touch down in the vibrant and historic city of Belfast. Welcome to Northern Ireland! After meeting our tour manager and boarding the waiting motorcoach, we take a panoramic tour of the city with its striking murals, bustling streets, and Victorian architecture. Afterwards, check at our hotel for a three-night stay and a chance to freshen up before our welcome dinner (B-in flight, D)

Wednesday, Sept. 23

Belfast

After a good night's sleep and breakfast, we are ready to explore! We start by immersing ourselves in Belfast's complex past. A guided bus and walking tour of The Troubles takes us through neighborhoods marked by colorful political murals and poignant memorials, offering insight into decades of conflict and resilience. After time for an independent lunch, we step into the imaginative world of C.S. Lewis, who grew up in Belfast. We see C.S. Lewis Square with its Narnia sculptures and visit St. Mark's Parish Church of Dundela, where he was baptized; also stop for an exterior view of his childhood home (now a private residence). Our final visit is Titanic Belfast, a state-of-the-art museum with interactive galleries that recreate the shipyard, the launch, and the tragic voyage of one of the world's most famous ships. The evening is free to choose from one of Belfast's restaurants for an independent dinner. (B)

Thursday, Sept. 24

Belfast > Antrim Coast > Belfast

The rugged beauty of the Antrim Coast awaits us today, where Lewis's family often vacationed. Here we marvel at the Giant's Causeway, a natural wonder of hexagonal basalt columns formed by volcanic activity and steeped in Irish legend. Fans of Game of Thrones will recognize dramatic filming locations, and our day is capped off with a visit to Old Bushmills Distillery, the world's oldest licensed whiskey distillery. After sampling the result of centuries of craftsmanship, we return to Belfast. (B)

Friday, Sept. 25

Belfast > London > Stonehenge > Bath

We bid farewell to Northern Ireland this morning as we take a flight to England. After landing in London, we journey to mysterious Stonehenge with its ancient, megalithic stone circle. Following our visit, continue to the enchanting city of Bath with its honey-colored Georgian architecture, where we check in at our hotel and relax over dinner. (B, D)

Saturday, Sept. 26

Bath

The Romans made Bath England's first spa resort in the first century AD, and the city is aptly named for the baths they built. We begin the day by visiting these baths and the Gothic Bath Abbey, followed by time for independent lunch. Then discover the world of Bath's most famous resident at the Jane Austen Centre. The rest of the afternoon and evening are ours to wander cobbled streets, browse shops, sip tea in a café, and have an independent dinner. (B)

Sunday, Sept. 27

Bath > The Cotswolds > Oxford

Today we travel through the rolling hills of the Cotswolds, an area of inspiration for J.R.R. Tolkien when he wrote about the Shire in his books. Its picturesque stone cottages, flower-filled gardens, and timeless village greens are a delight! We later arrive in the university city of Oxford with its 39 colleges. We plan to attend an Evensong service in one of its historic chapels before checking in at our hotel for a two-night stay and dinner. (B, D)

Monday, Sept. 28

Oxford

Oxford's scholarly heritage comes to life during a guided walking tour. We visit the Bodleian Library with its towering shelves and centuries of manuscripts, stroll through the leafy Addison's Walk at Magdalen College where Lewis taught, and visit Merton College, where Tolkien taught during the time The Lord of the Rings was finalized. A view of Pembroke College rounds out our day, weaving together the city's literary and academic legacy. The rest of our afternoon and evening are free for individual pursuits. (B)

Tuesday, Sept. 29

Oxford > Cambridge

We plan to visit The Kilns today, C.S. Lewis's home (subject to availability), along with Holy Trinity Church, where Lewis and his brother worshipped together and are buried. Our travels then take us to Cambridge, another bastion of learning, where we attend an Evensong service and have dinner at our hotel. (B, D)

Wednesday, Sept. 30
Cambridge > London

The morning is free to explore Cambridge, where attractive college buildings, gardens, punts (flat-bottomed boats) on the River Cam, and huge bookstores blend to create a peaceful, scholarly atmosphere. Later, we travel to London, where we visit the Charles Dickens Museum. Located in the author’s former home, it is filled with manuscripts, personal belongings, and echoes of Victorian London. The evening is free to do as we please, perhaps to arrange for tickets for a theatre performance. (B)

OCTOBER 2026

Thursday, Oct. 1
London

We immerse ourselves in the grandeur of London during a guided tour of Westminster Abbey, which reveals royal tombs and soaring Gothic architecture. It also contains the literary memorials of Poets’ Corner, where writers from Chaucer to Dickens are honored. The afternoon is ours to explore—perhaps by strolling along the Thames or taking a boat ride, shopping in Covent Garden or the Borough Market, or visiting one of London’s world-class museums. We reconvene this evening for our farewell dinner at a restaurant or local pub, a fitting way to conclude a wonderful tour. (B, D)

4

Friday, Oct. 2
Return

After one last English breakfast, transfer to London’s Heathrow Airport to check in for our flight back to San Diego (or other destination). (B, L-in flight)

Tour Pace

MODERATE – Travelers considering this tour must be aware of existing challenges in the United Kingdom for those with mobility, balance, and respiratory issues. While picturesque landscapes and cultural experiences await, navigating cobblestone streets, uneven terrain and narrow pathways pose difficulties. Passengers who require any mobility device, must be accompanied by a physically able companion who enables them to keep pace with walking tours on this trip. Taxis or other transportation used to “catch up” to the group are at the passenger’s expense. Activity levels vary from day-to-day. Sightseeing is often a brisk walk over several miles each day on uneven ground. Your safety and comfort are our top priorities. We are committed to ensuring an inclusive and enjoyable experience for all travelers.

General Data Protection Policy. We collect personal data, including, but not limited to legal name, gender, date of birth, passport information, dietary needs, and mobility concerns for the purpose of making travel arrangements on your behalf. We share this information with suppliers as it relates to the operation of your trip/tour. By signing the registration form/agreeing to the terms in TRIP, you agree to sharing your personal data for the purpose of making travel agreements on your behalf.

The cost of your tour includes:

Air transportation from San Diego to Belfast, Belfast to London, and London to San Diego (other departure cities available upon request) with any regularly scheduled air carrier, based on a nonrefundable/nonchangeable fare, which requires a minimum of 10 passengers traveling round trip together. The identity of the carrier, which may include the carrier's code-share partner, will be assigned and disclosed in your final documents. Tickets are issued 45 days prior to departure. All current airlines taxes, security fees and fuel surcharges are included. Note that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued.

Secure flight information. The requirement to collect date of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration's (TSA) Secure Flight Program. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied boarding. TSA's privacy policy, as well as additional details, can be found at tsa.gov using the keywords Secure Flight. Witte takes all reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of all information collected from its clients.

Frequent flyer points are not guaranteed in connection with group airfares. Some airlines may limit group airfare credits to 25% to 50% of the frequent flyer points that apply to individuals while others do not offer any credits for group airfares.

Hazardous Materials. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in your luggage or on your person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. For more information, examples and special exceptions, visit: <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items>.

Land transportation. A deluxe air-conditioned motorcoach is used for transfers, excursions, and travel between cities. Because motorcoach travel is restricted in many cities, sightseeing is often done on foot or via public transportation.

Accommodations in moderate first-class to standard first-class hotels based on two people sharing a room with private facilities. When hotels in these categories are not available, top-quality superior tourist-class properties are selected. The supplement for single accommodations is $1,360. If you register alone but want a roommate, we will do our best to assign one. Shared accommodation bed configurations vary by destination. Separate twin beds cannot be guaranteed. If a single room must be assigned to any member of the group for any reason, even if it is at the last minute or while on tour, we will need to charge the single supplement. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.

Meals. Breakfast daily and dinners as indicated in the itinerary. Dinners do not include beverages.

Tour Personnel. Irish & British tour managers (one in each country) to accompany the group from arrival in Belfast until departure from London. The tour managers may be assisted by local guides at key sites.

Sightseeing and admission fees in accordance with the itinerary.

Tip and taxes are included for all services, including the tip for the tour managers and motorcoach drivers.

The tour cost does not include passports, Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA) required to enter the U.K., airline luggage fees if charged, portage of luggage at airport and hotels that do not have porters, optional travel protection plan including luggage and trip cancellation coverage, optional excursions, independent meals, and any other items not mentioned as included.

Insecticide Disclosure. Some countries require that aircraft be treated with insecticides prior to flight or while occupied. For a list of the countries with insecticide requirements, go to <http://airconsumer.dot.gov/spray.htm>.

Optional travel protection. Witte recommends that you purchase a travel protection plan. For your convenience, Witte Travel offers a travel protection plan designed by Travelix Insurance Services. This travel protection can be purchased at any time prior to making the final payment for your tour. To be eligible for the waiver of pre-existing medical condition exclusion, the protection plan must be purchased within 21 days from the time you make your initial trip deposit, provided you are medically fit to travel at the time of purchase. The pre-existing medical exclusion applies to you, your traveling companion(s), and traveling family member(s). For all traveling companions to benefit from the pre-existing condition waiver, each must enroll in travel protection within 21 days of initial deposit and meet qualifications for the pre-existing condition waiver. The plan cost for the travel protection plan that applies to your tour will be noted in your brochure and on the registration form. It may be necessary to increase the trip cost insured on the travel protection plan if you purchase additional services and/or upgrade any arrangements. This could increase the plan cost of the travel protection plan. Documentation: Passports, Visas, and Travel Consent for Minors. All U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport book to travel internationally. If you already have a passport book, check its expiration date now since the countries visited on this tour require passports to be valid beyond the traveler's intended return date. If your passport is due to expire earlier, you will need to obtain a new one. If you do not have a passport book or need a new one, apply as soon as possible as processing can take time. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. An Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA) is required to enter the U.K. The current cost is £16 and is not included in the tour cost. You must apply online at <https://www.gov.uk/eta>. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special requirements. We will check the requirements for non-U.S. citizens at the time they register and again approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check.

When travelling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry at least two forms of acceptable identification in order to board a flight found <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. Examples: DHS-designated enhanced driver's license, U.S. Passport, a foreign government passport. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are strongly encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. It has become increasingly necessary to possess such a note, and will save time if questions arise departing from the U.S. or to exit a foreign country. In order to download a sample minor consent form go to: <https://www.us-passport-service-guide.com/minor-travel-consent-form.html>The sample form is a guide only. Parents who share custody of their children should carry copies of the legal custody documents. Important note: Parents are responsible to contact the embassy of the country or countries the minor child will be visiting to confirm all travel entry and exit requirements, which may include obtaining additional notarized documentation.

Health Documentation Requirements. You are responsible to make absolutely certain to have the proper immunizations and required documentation of such immunizations before travel. Witte shall not assume responsibility for the accuracy of health requirements or vaccination documentation prior to departure or upon landing at the final destination. See your health practitioner for advice. Prior to travel, required inoculations, if any, must be recorded by your health practitioner on a valid vaccination certificate, and you must carry for proof of inoculation where required. If you are concerned about taking any medications or receiving certain inoculations, and adequate timing of such inoculations relative to your travel booking, consult your health practitioner BEFORE booking. Check the U.S. State Department websites <http://travel.state.gov> for relevant information relating to travel to specific destinations, the USA Centers for Disease Control <http://www.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/list/> and the World Health Organization <http://www.who.int/en/relating to health issues>.

You may also carry a purse, a camera and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum size of 45 linear inches and weight of 15 lbs. These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines' requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet. Portage of luggage is provided at hotels to the greatest extent possible. Portage is not provided at airports and at hotels that do not have porters. Let your tour personnel know if you need assistance with your luggage.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 27 passengers and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. You may be charged additional sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange markets, and/or changes in group size. Before passing on an increase, Witte will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. If it is necessary to increase the tour cost, participants will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing factors.
