ARRIVE THESSALONÍKI

After changing planes, we connect with our flight to Thessaloníki, the second largest city in Greece and the capital of ancient Macedonia, where our tour manager will show us to the waiting motorcoach. We get acquainted with Thessaloníki by walking along the waterfront and seeing the White Tower, which is the symbol of the city, along with the statue of Alexander the Great with his famous horse, Bucephalus. We also visit the Acropolis with its impressive view of the city and Aegean Sea and see the triumphal Arch of Galerius (AD 305-311). We then check into the hotel, our temporary “home” for the next two nights. After some time to rest and freshen up, we have the first of our one-hour evening study sessions on “Paul: His Life & His Letters” and a welcome dinner. (B-in flight, D)

KAVÁLA (NEAPOLIS), PHILIPPI, AMPHIPOLIS, THESSALONÍKI

Our first full day in Greece begins with a scenic bus drive, much of it along the Aegean Sea, to Kavála (ancient Neapolis), the port city of Philippi, where Paul landed by boat and thus first brought the gospel to Europe. From here, we travel inland a short distance to Philippi, named after Philip II, the father of Alexander the Great. We follow the Via Egnatia, the same ancient Roman road that the apostle took into the city. Here at Philippi, Paul preached his first sermon in Europe and baptized Lydia, the first Christian convert on the continent (Acts 16:1-40). The Philippian church became one of Paul's favorite congregations and, many years later, while under house arrest in Rome, he wrote them a letter (Philippians) expressing his gratitude for their faithful support of his missionary activity. We will first visit the beautiful church that commemorates the baptism of Lydia and then go to the nearby ancient site of Philippi to see its impressive city walls, well-preserved theater, rock-cut sanctuaries to various pagan gods, Roman Agora (marketplace), and three Christian basilicas. We will also have a study session at the ancient site on “The Gospel Comes to Philippi” (Acts 16:11-40). We return to Thessaloníki by following the same path that Paul, Silas, and Timothy went, taking the Via Egnatia through Amphipolis and Apollonia (Acts 17:1). Upon return to Thessaloníki, we'll have an evening worship service, followed by free time for an independent dinner. (B)

Monday, April 5

THESSALONÍKI, VÉRIA (BEREA), VERGÍNA, KALAMBAKA

We follow the footsteps of Paul in Thessaloníki, named after Thessalonica, the sister of Alexander the Great. The apostle spent a number of weeks here during his Second Missionary Journey, establishing a church (Acts 17:1-9) to whom he would, a short time later, write two letters (1 & 2 Thessalonians). We visit St. Demetrius, the main church in the city that honors an early Christian martyr. Then visit the Roman Agora (marketplace), where a mob was formed against Paul and an ensuing riot started in the city (Acts 17:5). Following the Via Egnatia again, we briefly visit Berea (modern Véria), the place whose Jewish citizens “received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true” (Acts 17:11). After viewing the Bema—the spot where tradition has Paul teaching the Bereans—and the beautiful monument dedicated to the apostle, we'll travel the short distance to Vergína (ancient Aigai), the original capital of the ancient Macedonian empire. Spectacular tombs and funerary objects are housed in an impressive modern museum on-site. One tomb with a beautiful façade almost certainly contained the body of Philip II, the father of Alexander the Great, who died in 338 BC. At the day's end, we reach Kalambaka, where we will have dinner at the hotel. (B, D)

Wednesday, April 7

ATHENS

We have a full day for the magnificent sights in Athens, which Paul visited during his Second Missionary Journey (Acts 17:15-34). Before ascending the Acropolis, stop at the Agora (marketplace) of ancient Athens, where the apostle dialogued with the Athenian citizens and philosophers (Acts 17:17) and at the Areopagus ("Mars Hill"), where he addressed city leaders (Acts 17:19-33). Then we go up to the Acropolis, which towers over the city and houses the Parthenon, a building so masterfully created that it has been the subject of architectural study since its creation. This magnificent Doric temple was built to honor Athena, the goddess and patroness of Athens. Equally impressive buildings on the Acropolis include the Erechtheion with its Porch of Maidens, the Temple of Athena Nike (the goddess of "Victory"), and the Altar of Augustus as part of the Imperial Cult. The area surrounding the Acropolis houses several other striking archaeological sites: the Stoa of Attalos, the Theatre of Dionysus, the Odeon of Herodes Atticus, the Temple of Hephaestus, the Arch of Hadrian, and the Temple of Olympian Zeus. We also hope to visit with Rev. George Adam, a pastor in the Greek Evangelical Church who will share with us the challenges and opportunities of ministering in a country where 99% of the citizens are Greek Orthodox. We have an early study session, followed by free time to explore the Plaka and have an independent dinner. (B)

Tuesday, April 6

METÉORA, THERMOPYLAE, ATHENS

Today's sites will take your breath away! Nearby, we find the famous Cenobitic Monasteries that are perched precariously on top of huge columns of rock that rise out of the ground, thereby giving them the name Metéora, which means "in the air." It was in the 11th century that the first hermits sought refuge in the caves of Metéora, since the solitude and spectacular vistas enhanced the mystic way of life. Eventually, the hermits began to group in monasteries whose buildings were decorated with frescoes and icons by the great artists of the day. After touring one of these historic, breathtaking monasteries, we stop briefly, if time permits, at an icon workshop where we can witness the skill with which these religious artifacts are made and have an opportunity to buy some distinctively Greek souvenirs. On the scenic drive to Athens, we make a brief stop at Thermopylae, the famous narrow coastal passage where, in 480 BC, 300 Spartans bravely fought against the massive Persian army led by King Xerxes (who is mentioned in the book of Esther). The day concludes with a study session and dinner at the hotel. (B, D)

Thursday, April 8 CORINTH, CENCHREA, ISTHμία, ATHENS

Leave the hustle and bustle of Athens for the serenity of the Peloponnesus, a huge land mass linked to the mainland of Greece by a narrow isthmus only about 3.5 miles wide. The city of Corinth, in Paul's day, controlled all traffic crossing this narrow isthmus, which contributed to this ancient city's power and wealth. After stopping briefly at the Corinthian Canal, proceed to nearby Cenchrea, one of the two harbors of ancient Corinth. Cenchrea is not only the place from which Paul sailed on more than one occasion (Acts 18:18), but it was also both the home of another early church and an influential Christian woman briefly mentioned by the apostle (Rom. 16:1). We also pass through Isthmia, which housed an impressive temple to Poseidon and the Isthmian Games. These games were celebrated biannually in Paul's day and were second in importance only to the Olympic Games. Spend time visiting ancient Corinth, the place where Paul ministered for 1½ years (Acts 18:1-18) and would later write at least four letters, two of which have survived (1 & 2 Corinthians). The city is located on the slopes of the Acrocorinth, a towering mountain rising 1,886 feet above the sea and crowned in ancient times by the temple of Aphrodite. Extensive ruins of Corinth visible today include several temples, water fountains, shops, various public buildings, the largest Agora (marketplace) in the ancient world, and the Bema, where Paul likely met before the governor Gallio (Acts 18:12-17). The Corinthian Museum contains many significant artifacts, several of which have a direct link to events, items, and people mentioned in the New Testament. Upon return to Athens, we enjoy a special dinner at a restaurant with a panoramic view of the Acropolis. (B, D)

Friday, April 9

LAVRION, CRUISE: MYKONOS

Depart for the port city of Lavrion, where we begin a fantastic three-day cruise of the Greek islands and ancient Ephesus in Turkey. Our journey parallels somewhat that of Paul, who traveled across the Aegean Sea on more than one occasion between Corinth and Ephesus. We hope to have each day of the cruise an optional, afternoon study session on the ship. Our first port of call is Mykonos, a fashionable resort that has maintained the simple yet charming life of a Cycladic Island. The whitewashed buildings and windmills of this island have enchanted visitors for decades. We enjoy free time to wander the charming, narrow streets of this beautiful seaside village. (B, L, D)

Saturday, April 10

CRUISE: KUŞADASI, EPHEBUS, PÁTMOΣ

Arrive early in the morning at the Turkish port of Kuşadası for a short drive inland to the ancient city of Ephesus. Paul visited Ephesus only briefly during his Second Missionary Journey (Acts 18:19-21) but returned to the city during his Third Missionary Journey for a much longer period of two years and three months (Acts 19:1-41). The ancient city of Ephesus is remarkably well-preserved and includes such significant sights as the Temple of Artemis, the Library of Celsus, the two Agoras, the Odeon, the Roman baths, the Marble Road, and the Grand Theater—where a huge riot (involving some 24,000 people) against Paul took place. We return to the ship for lunch while sailing to the island of Pátmos, where John wrote the book of Revelation (Rev. 1:9) while in exile. During a guided tour, we will ascend to the island's highest point and visit the Monastery of St. John (founded in 1088) as well as the Grotto of the Apocalypse, the cave where John is believed to have received his vision and recorded his message to the seven churches of Asia Minor. (B, L, D)

Sunday, April 11

CRUISE: CRETE, SANTORINI

This morning, we arrive on the island of Crete, the birthplace of the Minoan culture and ministry location of Paul's fellow missionary, Titus. We have the option of exploring the town of Heraklion (Iraklio) on our own or taking a shore excursion to the Minoan Palace of Knossos (additional cost). Back on board the ship, we spend the afternoon at sea, and we plan to have a worship service as we travel to the spectacular island of Santorini. This stunningly beautiful place was formed by one of the largest volcanic eruptions in history (around 1450 BC) that created impressive black-rock cliffs on which are perched quaint, white-washed homes with brilliant blue roofs. It is still a volcanic island, with the most recent explosion having taken place in 1928, and it is referred to as the "Black Pearl" because of its black, volcanic ash beaches. We have the option of taking a shore excursion offered by the cruise ship (additional cost) or visiting Fira Town on our own. Return to the ship for dinner, after which we sail through the night back to mainland Greece. (B, L, D)

Monday, April 12

LAVRION, RETURN

Our delightful cruise ends with an early morning arrival in Lavrion. After our early morning disembarkation, we transfer to Athens Airport to check in for our flights home. We are confident Paul's Missionary Journeys in Greece has been an instructive, inspirational, and memorable trip for you! (B, L in-flight)

You pledge to follow local and state laws as well as tour and sightseeing requirements related to any community health concern. If you refuse to comply with these rules of conduct, you understand that Witte Travel & Tours reserves the right to remove you from the trip and you are responsible for any associated expenses. Witte reserves the right to accept or reject any person as a member of the tour and to expel from the tour any participant whose conduct or condition is incompatible with the interest of the group.

Land-only participants. If you wish to make your own flight arrangements, contact Witte for the land-only cost at least 90 days prior to departure. Participants who make their own flight arrangements are strongly encouraged to coordinate their flight schedules with the group’s flight schedule and to use the same airports. The group’s airport transfers on the arrival and return days will be timed to the group’s flight schedule. Land-only participants may need to arrange for their own airport transfers. Contact Witte for information and costs on options for private transfers. Witte cannot be responsible for any inconveniences to land-only participants resulting from changes in the group’s flight schedule. Participants who change their status to land-only less than 90 days prior to departure may be subject to penalties imposed by the airlines.

Domestic flight connections. Note on your registration form if you would like to fly to and from the international departure city. You will be contacted with schedule options and costs. Witte must receive requests for connecting flights at least 45 days prior to departure.

Special flight arrangements. Note on your registration form if you would like to extend your stay and/or depart from and/or return to another city. The number of passengers who can deviate from the group’s flight schedule is restricted. You will be contacted to let you know if the arrangements you requested are possible and to advise you of schedule options and costs. Upon confirmation of your special arrangements, a nonrefundable service fee of $75 per person will be added to your account along with any additional air or land costs that may apply. In the event of cancellation, the service fee and any nonrefundable portion of special air or land arrangements made for you will be added to the penalties noted under “Cancellations and Refunds.” Witte must receive requests for special flight arrangements at least 45 days prior to departure.

Special meal requests and food allergies. Note special meal requests and food allergies on your registration form. Witte cannot be responsible if special requests are not met but we will pass them on to the airlines, hotels and restaurants. If you have dietary restrictions or food allergies, be sure to carry your medications with you at all times. Also, discuss your special needs with your tour personnel and ask the wait staff about the foods you are served.

Mobility Concerns. Sightseeing on Witte tours almost always includes walking. Visits to historical places often mean climbing stairs and walking on uneven surfaces or cobblestones. The Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) is only applicable within the U.S., and facilities for disabled individuals are limited outside its borders. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need such assistance. Motorized scooters and wheelchairs are unsuitable for many trips. Transportation services, including many tour motor coaches, are not equipped with wheelchair ramps. Handicap accessibility is not always available. Witte tour personnel are not able to provide attendant services.

Consult your physician if you have any concerns about your ability to participate.

Time away from the tour. Advise Witte in writing at least 45 days before departure if you plan to spend some time away from the tour. Wherever possible, you will be credited for missed hotel nights.

Final tour documents—including itinerary, hotel list, passenger list, flight schedules with departure instructions, and luggage tags—are sent about 10 days prior to departure. Flight tickets are usually made available at the airport at check-in.

Limitations of Responsibility and Disclosure. The trip outlined herein has been contracted with Tutku Tours. Witte acts solely as a booking agent for disclosed principal supplier hotels, airlines, air charters, bus companies, ground transportation, cruise lines, boat purveyors or owners, and other independent contractors providing accommodations, transportation, and/or other services (“supplier(s)”), and is not the source or provider of the travel services. Each of these supplier companies is an independent entity with its own management, and is not subject to the control of Witte. Participant is advised that the suppliers whose names appear in travel documentation are those actually responsible for providing the travel services purchased, and consents to the use of those suppliers, and understands and agrees each supplier’s Terms and Conditions are contained in printed form and are set forth on their respective Web sites, which govern the transaction. All bookings are accepted by Witte as agent for the travel suppliers on your itinerary. The transportation, accommodations and other services provided by the identified sea, ground, and air operator suppliers offered are subject to the terms and conditions contained in the tickets, exchange orders or vouchers issued by them and/or their suppliers, including Terms and Conditions on their respective Web sites.

BECAUSE WITTE ACTS AS AGENT FOR DISCLOSED PRINCIPAL SUPPLIERS, AND DOES NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO CONTROL THE OPERATIONS OF SUCH INDEPENDENT OPERATORS AND SUPPLIERS, YOU AGREE WITTE IS NOT LIABLE FOR ANY PERSONAL INJURY OR PROPERTY DAMAGE, WHICH MAY ARISE OUT OF THESE SERVICES. WITTE HEREBY DISCLAIMS ANY LIABILITY WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, PUNITIVE, SPECIAL CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL OR INDIRECT DAMAGES, IN CONNECTION WITH THE GOODS OR SERVICES PROVIDED BY ANY PRINCIPAL SUPPLIER BOOKING THROUGH WITTE’ OFFICE OR THROUGH THEIR WEB SITE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LIABILITY FOR ANY ACT, ERROR, OMISSION, INJURY, LOSS, ACCIDENT, DELAY OR IRREGULARITY WHICH MAY BE INCURRED THROUGH THE FAULT, NEGLIGENCE, WILFUL ACTS, OMISSIONS OR OTHERWISE OF SUCH SUPPLIER, OR OF ANY SUPPLIER OR THEIR RESPECTIVE EMPLOYEES, AGENTS, SERVANTS, OR REPRESENTATIVES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THEIR FAILURE TO DELIVER OR THEIR PARTIAL OR INADEQUATE DELIVERY OF SERVICES, FUEL INCREASES, AND OTHER MATTERS OUTSIDE OF WITTE CONTROL, AND PARTICIPANT HEREBY EXONERATES WITTE FROM ANY LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO THE SAME.

Witte, its agents, sponsors, organizers and employees shall not be responsible for any injury, loss, damage, accident, delay, irregularity or expense arising from strikes, weather, sickness, acts of war or terrorism, governmental restrictions or regulations or from any act or omission on the part of any individual or company furnishing transportation, accommodations or any other services to the tour participants; absent gross negligence, Witte shall not be responsible for any injuries, death, damages, loss or delay by any means of transportation or by reason of any event beyond its actual control.

Weather conditions, including but not limited to the presence or absence of snow, sunshine, and rainfall are not guaranteed to occur or not occur, and are outside of Witte’s control. Volcanic eruptions, ash clouds, and wind may be characterized as an adverse weather condition or a natural disaster by suppliers and your travel insurance company, which is beyond the control of Witte.

Witte shall not assume any responsibility for any air and/or ground schedule changes.

Witte reserves the right to make alterations in the itinerary as it deems necessary.

Force Majeure. “Force Majeure” means, in relation to Witte, any circumstances beyond the reasonable control of Witte, (including, but without limitation, acts of God, explosion, tidal waves and flood, tempest, forceful wind, earthquakes, fire or accident, hostilities, war or threat of war declared or undeclared, acts or threats of terrorism, sabotage, insurrection, riots, strikes, civil disturbance, requisition, epidemic, sickness, quarantine, government intervention, invasion, act of foreign enemies, mobilization, embargo, weather conditions, defects in machinery and vehicles, delay, wildlife, contamination by radio-activity from any nuclear fuel or from any nuclear waste, or other untoward occurrences).

Witte shall not be deemed to be in breach of these terms and conditions or otherwise be liable to you, by reason of delay in performance, or by non-performance, of any of its obligations hereunder to the extent that any such delay or non-performance is due to any Force Majeure.

If Witte, and/or any of its travel suppliers, are affected by Force Majeure, they shall be entitled to, and may in their sole and absolute discretion, vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the trip. Payment of any refund by Witte to you as a result of the non-performance of any obligations due to Force Majeure shall remain in its sole and absolute discretion, although Witte shall use its reasonable efforts to reimburse you where possible. However, Witte shall be entitled to deduct from any refund recoverable the reasonable actual and potential costs to Witte of the Force Majeure and applicable cancellation fees.

Regarding civil unrest, once Witte has investigated the prevailing situation, as it deems fit, it shall remain in Witte’s sole and absolute discretion whether to proceed with the trip. You may in such circumstances cancel the trip subject to Witte’s and each supplier’s terms and conditions.

In case of insufficient participation, geopolitical, or natural cause, or other circumstances beyond its control to the extent travel services cannot be provided wholly or partially, Witte may cancel the tour. In such cases, Witte will use its best efforts to supply alternative services and accommodations, and no refunds will be granted provided that the alternatives are comparable to the original services and accommodations included in the tour cost. In the event of cancellation of the tour by Witte, its liability will be limited to a refund in full of all monies paid by the participants. If available, Witte will offer an alternative trip, which the participants may accept or reject.
