

The Gospel Comes to Italy:

THE NEW TESTAMENT IN THE ANCIENT ROMAN WORLD

Walk in the footsteps of the earliest Christians during the day, and study the life and letters of the apostles Paul and Peter at night!

Travel by deluxe motorcoach to biblical and other ancient sites in Italy that provide an important window into the ancient Roman world experienced by first-century followers of Jesus.

Highlights include visits to the Vatican with its Sistine Chapel and St. Peter's Cathedral, the impressive monuments of ancient Rome (Colosseum, Arch of Constantine, Arch of Titus, Forum, Catacombs, Pantheon, Altar of Peace, and Mamertine Prison where, according to tradition, Paul and Peter were held), the ancient harbor city of Ostia, Hadrian's Villa, the cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum preserved by Mt. Vesuvius' eruption, and Paestum, with two of best intact Greek temples anywhere. Enjoy the scenic drive around the Amalfi Coast—one of the most spectacular routes in the world. Most evenings feature a study session that deals with the ministries of the apostles Paul and Peter.

Join host Jeff Weima, professor of New Testament at Calvin Theological Seminary and leading biblical scholar, for this inspirational tour.
