Tour Pace

ACTIVE – Travelers considering this tour must be aware of existing challenges in Italy for those with mobility, balance, and respiratory issues. While picturesque landscapes and cultural experiences await, navigating cobblestone streets, uneven terrain and narrow pathways pose difficulties. Passengers who require any mobility device, must be accompanied by a physically able companion who enables them to keep pace with walking tours on this trip. Taxis or other transportation used to “catch up” to the group are at the passenger’s expense. Activity levels vary from day-to-day. Sightseeing is often a brisk walk ranging from two to four miles each day on uneven ground. Your safety and comfort are our top priorities. We are committed to ensuring an inclusive and enjoyable experience for all travelers.

Wednesday, April 14

Paestum, Herculaneum, Pompeii

Our first full day begins with about an hour's drive south to the ancient city of Paestum or Poseidonia (in honor of Poseidon, the Greek god of the sea). This city was founded in the 6th century BC by Greek settlers as part of the Magna Graecia ("Greater Greece") and fell under Roman control in 273 BC when it became an important trading port in the Roman Empire. The ancient ruins introduce us well to buildings typically found in a Greco-Roman city: the large Forum (open marketplace 1100 x 1000 feet), the Macellum (meat market), a small amphitheater, the Ekklesiasterion (a circular administrative building), and various religious buildings such as the Asclepion (temple to the god of healing), Temple of Peace, and Sanctuary of Fortuna Virilis (temple of manly luck). The most impressive structures by far, however, include the three Greek temples built during the 6th and 5th centuries BC. These temples, which are dedicated to Athena (goddess of wisdom), Hera (the wife of Zeus), and Poseidon (the patron god of the city), are among the best-preserved sanctuaries from the ancient world. The ancient site also houses a museum that displays many fine objects from excavations in the area, including the famous "Tomb of the Diver" paintings. After time for an independent lunch, we drive back to Pompeii to visit the ancient city of Herculaneum, which was also destroyed by the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius. This city was buried not with 15-20 feet of volcanic ash (as happened to Pompeii), but with 60 feet of boiling mud that solidified into rock. The ruins here, though small by comparison with the ancient city of Pompeii, are most impressive and provide important images about everyday life in the world of the New Testament. We end the day back at our hotel for our first full study session and dinner. (B, D)

Thursday, April 15

Mt. Vesuvius, Pompeii

We spend the first and major part of our day on a fascinating tour of Città Morta—the Dead City. Buried by ash from Mt. Vesuvius in AD 79, Pompeii offers a unique opportunity to go back in time 2,000 years and get a very clear picture of what life was like in New Testament times. Some of the impressive things we see include: paved city streets laid out carefully in the Hippodamian grid plan; a theater where 5,000 people could watch Greek and Roman plays; an amphitheater which seats all the 20,000 citizens of the city who enjoyed here the gladiator fights; the palaestra—the large, open and columned courtyard where the gladiators and other athletes would exercise; public baths with their three pools of cold, lukewarm, and hot water; and the Forum—the political, commercial and religious center of the city with its municipal buildings, marketplace, and temples. Many homes of the wealthy are also well-preserved with their impressive courtyards, gardens, and mosaics. Perhaps most memorable, however, are the plaster casts of the bodies of those citizens who failed to escape and perished along with the city. After our visit to this extraordinary ancient site, we head to a winery at the foot of Mt. Vesuvius to enjoy a wine tasting. We then return to our hotel for another study session and a nourishing dinner. (B, D)

Friday, April 16

Amalfi Coast, Pompeii

Our exciting day consists of an amazing drive along the rugged and spectacular Amalfi Coast that ranks among the most scenic drives in the world. Since our large tour bus is not allowed on this winding, narrow road, we take a smaller bus to make brief stops in the historic resort towns of Positano and Amalfi, along with a scenic boat ride from Amalfi to Maiori. There is ample free time to wander the steep, winding, quaint streets of these coastal towns. Our day includes a stop to sample limoncello, Italy's vibrant lemon liqueur, and we return to our hotel for another optional study session and evening meal. (B, D)

Saturday, April 17

Naples, Pozzuoli (Puteoli), Rome

We get an early start today with a drive to Naples for a guided tour of the National Archaeological Museum, one of the most impressive museums of antiquities in the world. It is of prime importance for the study of Greek and Roman sculpture but also houses a remarkable collection of artifacts recovered from the buried cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum. A short drive to the west brings us to the ancient seaport of Pozzuoli (or Puteoli)—the main harbor for the faraway city of Rome. The apostle Paul landed at this port on his prison journey to Rome and spent one week here with local Christians (Acts 28:13-14). Among the Roman remains here is the third-largest amphitheater and the ruins of the Serapeum, which is not, as the name suggests, a temple to the Egyptian god Serapis, but a macellum or meat-market. After lunch, we begin our journey to Rome. As we pass by the nearby city of Capua, we tell the story of Spartacus, who led a three-year revolt of some 100,000 slaves before finally being defeated. Capua was not only the place where Spartacus started the slave revolt, but it also marked the spot where 6,000 captured slaves were crucified at the end of the revolt on crosses every 100 feet along the entire 125-mile highway (Via Appia) leading to Rome. We parallel this ancient highway in our drive to Rome, the "Eternal City," where we spend the next five nights. (B, D)

Sunday, April 18

Rome

Today involves a walking tour of the most important monuments from the Roman period. The Colosseum is the largest amphitheater in the ancient world (the date and time of this visit are subject to availability). One of the most recognizable buildings of Rome, it was once the scene of gladiatorial contests, mock naval battles, and fights pitting men against animals. We walk next to the Arch of Constantine, then the Arch of Titus, and finally through the Roman Forum. This commercial, political, and religious center was originally constructed some 2,500 years ago. Yet the ancient Senate, temples, basilicas, and triumphal arches are still impressive today. Exiting the Forum, we stop briefly for a view of the Mamertine Prison, the most ancient prison in the city. According to Christian tradition, both the apostle Peter and Paul were imprisoned here. Our visit to the Roman Forum ends at the smallest of Rome's seven hills but its most important: the Capitoline (Capitol) Hill. Here once stood the Temple of Jupiter, of which only the foundations remain, and it is now crowned with several modern buildings. After our independent lunch break, we have one more important monument of the Roman Empire to visit: the Ara Pacis ("Altar of Peace"). Originally built in 13 BC to commemorate the peace that Augustus established within the Empire, this altar was marvelously reconstructed in 1937-1938 and is housed in a beautiful new museum built in 2006. It is extremely important for understanding how the Roman Empire aggressively marketed itself as the provider of peace—the "Pax Romana." The Altar of Peace is located directly adjacent to another impressive ancient monument – the Mausoleum of Augustus, built in 28 BC – which is now part of a brand new public square, Piazza Augusto Imperatore. We then return to the hotel for a worship service based on Paul's letter to the Romans and a delicious dinner. (B, D)

Monday, April 19

Rome

Our second day in the “Eternal City” begins with a visit to the Catacombs of San Callisto. The catacombs were used by the early Christians as underground cemeteries outside the city walls, since burial within the city was strictly forbidden. The soft volcanic tufa rock underneath Rome is highly suitable for tunneling and these easily quarried catacombs provided the space for thousands of Christians to be buried from the 1st to 5th centuries. Next, we head to the traditional location of the apostle Paul’s death and burial: St. Paul Outside the Walls Church. This beautiful church is the largest in Rome after St. Peter’s. The tomb of Paul is believed to be beneath the altar, where there is a 1st-century tomb surrounded by Christian and pagan burials. Our bus next drops us off near the Pantheon. This impressive Roman monument, originally built in 27 BC and rebuilt by Emperor Hadrian around AD 120, was a temple dedicated to all the gods (Greek: pantheon). Its 141-foot-high dome was the largest in the world until the Florence Cathedral was built in 1436. From there we walk to Piazza Navona—arguably, the most beautiful square in the heart of Rome. The afternoon is free to sightsee and shop on your own. Some free time options include the Palatine Hill (a beautiful park containing impressive ruins from the palaces of the Roman emperors), St. Peter in Chains Church (which has Michelangelo’s Moses), the Trevi Fountain, the Spanish Steps, or a stroll through the Villa Borghese Gardens. Tonight’s dinner is independent to choose from one of Rome’s many restaurants, with return to the hotel whenever we like. (B)

Tuesday, April 20

Vatican City, Tivoli, Rome

We have seen images of the Vatican on television and in movies, but today we witness it in person! The Vatican is actually a small (109 acres) yet powerful independent state that is the heart of the Roman Catholic Church. We begin with a guided tour of the fantastic Vatican Museums, which are filled with almost incomprehensible treasures. The highlight of our visit is the Sistine Chapel whose splendid vault was painted by Michelangelo and illustrates the great biblical stories of Creation, the Flood, and the Last Judgment. We also visit the impressive St. Peter’s Square and St. Peter’s Basilica—a masterpiece built between the 15th and 17th centuries on the site of an earlier church dating from the time of Emperor Constantine. The massive interior is breathtaking, and it contains many works of art, most notably Michelangelo’s Pieta—the moving sculpture of Mary holding in her lap the body of Jesus after the crucifixion. After an independent lunch, we travel by bus a short distance outside the city to Tivoli to visit Hadrian’s Villa—the largest and richest Imperial villa in the Roman Empire. This impressive villa originally consisted of over 30 buildings that recreated the favorite monuments of Hadrian which he saw during his prolonged travels around the empire. These included the Canopus or Sanctuary of Serapis in Alexandria, the Pecile or the “painted porch” in Athens, the Vale of Tempe in Thessaly, and the Lyceum or Academy in Athens. Before heading back to the hotel, we enjoy a delicious meal at the unique cave-like restaurant Terme di Diana in Tivoli (or similar). (B, D)

Wednesday, April 21 Ostia Antica, Rome

Our final full day in Italy involves visiting Ostia Antica (“Ancient Ostia”)—an ancient port city of Rome located 16 miles southwest of the capital at the mouth of the Tiber River. This port city suffered from the problem of silting with the result that it is now located some two miles inland away from the sea. Although this silting caused Ostia to ultimately be abandoned, it also resulted in preserving this ancient city in excellent condition. Modern visitors are treated to many impressive ruins: the Forum with its main temple—the Capitulum—dedicated to the three gods: Jupiter, Juno and Minerva; the Baths of Neptune and its floor mosaics; a Roman theater seating 4,000 spectators; a block of upper floor apartments and first-story shops, including take-away food bars; one of the oldest synagogues in the world dating to the time of Paul and Peter; and more. The quality of preservation is matched only by that at Pompeii but without the crowds of tourists, since many travelers today are unaware of Ostia’s treasures. Time permitting, we also make a brief visit to the local museum containing interesting pieces from this ancient site. After a late independent lunch, we drive back to Rome and our hotel, leaving some free time to do some final exploration of the city’s many famous sites, shop for souvenirs, or begin packing for the trip home tomorrow. Prior to our farewell dinner, we gather for one last time for a “debriefing” session where we reflect together on the many extraordinary things we have seen and experienced on this biblical study tour. (B, D)

Thursday, April 22 Return

Today we reluctantly leave behind the exciting sites of Italy and make the journey back to North America and our home cities. We are confident The Gospel Comes to Italy has been an instructive, inspirational, and memorable trip for you! (B, L-in flight)

Membership/Passenger's Responsibility. You acknowledge Witte is responsible for a comfortable and respectful atmosphere that protects the health of all travelers, creating a positive tour experience. This requires commitment from every individual on the tour to assume personal responsibility for protecting their own health and wellbeing, as well as the health and wellbeing of other travelers and tour personnel. You pledge to follow local and state laws as well as tour and sightseeing requirements related to any community health concern. If you refuse to comply with these rules of conduct, you understand that Witte Travel & Tours reserves the right to remove you from the trip and you are responsible for any associated expenses. Witte reserves the right to accept or reject any person as a member of the tour and to expel from the tour any participant whose conduct or condition is incompatible with the interest of the group.

Land-only participants. If you wish to make your own flight arrangements, contact Witte for the land-only cost at least 90 days prior to departure. Participants who make their own flight arrangements are strongly encouraged to coordinate their flight schedules with the group's flight schedule and to use the same airports. The group's airport transfers on the arrival and return days will be timed to the group's flight schedule. Land-only participants may need to arrange for their own airport transfers. Contact Witte for information and costs on options for private transfers. Witte cannot be responsible for any inconveniences to land-only participants resulting from changes in the group's flight schedule. Participants who change their status to land-only less than 90 days prior to departure may be subject to penalties imposed by the airlines.

Domestic flight connections. Note on your registration form if you would like to fly to and from the international departure city. You will be contacted with schedule options and costs. Witte must receive requests for connecting flights at least 45 days prior to departure.

Special flight arrangements. Note on your registration form if you would like to extend your stay and/or depart from and/or return to another city. The number of passengers who can deviate from the group's flight schedule is restricted. You will be contacted to let you know if the arrangements you requested are possible and to advise you of schedule options and costs. Upon confirmation of your special arrangements, a nonrefundable service fee of $75 per person will be added to your account along with any additional air or land costs that may apply. In the event of cancellation, the service fee and any nonrefundable portion of special air or land arrangements made for you will be added to the penalties noted under "Cancellations and Refunds." Witte must receive requests for special flight arrangements at least 45 days prior to departure.

Special meal requests and food allergies. Note special meal requests and food allergies on your registration form. Witte cannot be responsible if special requests are not met but we will pass them on to the airlines, hotels and restaurants. If you have dietary restrictions or food allergies, be sure to carry your medications with you at all times. Also, discuss your special needs with your tour personnel and ask the wait staff about the foods you are served.

Mobility Concerns. Sightseeing on Witte tours almost always includes walking. Visits to historical places often mean climbing stairs and walking on uneven surfaces or cobblestones. The Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") is only applicable within the U.S., and facilities for disabled individuals are limited outside its borders. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need such assistance. Motorized scooters and wheelchairs are unsuitable for many trips. Transportation services, including many tour motor coaches, are not equipped with wheelchair ramps. Handicap accessibility is not always available. Witte tour personnel are not able to provide attendant services.

Consult your physician if you have any concerns about your ability to participate.

Time away from the tour. Advise Witte in writing at least 45 days before departure if you plan to spend some time away from the tour. Wherever possible, you will be credited for missed hotel nights.

Final tour documents—including itinerary, hotel list, passenger list, flight schedules with departure instructions, and luggage tags—are sent about 10 days prior to departure. Flight tickets are usually made available at the airport at check-in.

Limitations of Responsibility and Disclosure. The trip outlined herein has been contracted with Michelangelo International Travel. Witte acts solely as a booking agent for disclosed principal supplier hotels, airlines, air charters, bus companies, ground transportation, cruise lines, boat purveyors or owners, and other independent contractors providing accommodations, transportation, and/or other services ("supplier(s)"), and is not the source or provider of the travel services. Each of these supplier companies is an independent entity with its own management, and is not subject to the control of Witte. Participant is advised that the suppliers whose names appear in travel documentation are those actually responsible for providing the travel services purchased, and consents to the use of those suppliers, and understands and agrees each supplier's Terms and Conditions are contained in printed form and are set forth on their respective Web sites, which govern the transaction. All bookings are accepted by Witte as agent for the travel suppliers on your itinerary. The transportation, accommodations and other services provided by the identified sea, ground, and air operator suppliers offered are subject to the terms and conditions contained in the tickets, exchange orders or vouchers issued by them and/or their suppliers, including Terms and Conditions on their respective Web sites.

BECAUSE WITTE ACTS AS AGENT FOR DISCLOSED PRINCIPAL SUPPLIERS, AND DOES NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO CONTROL THE OPERATIONS OF SUCH INDEPENDENT OPERATORS AND SUPPLIERS, YOU AGREE WITTE IS NOT LIABLE FOR ANY PERSONAL INJURY OR PROPERTY DAMAGE, WHICH MAY ARISE OUT OF THESE SERVICES. WITTE HEREBY DISCLAIMS ANY LIABILITY WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, PUNITIVE, SPECIAL CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL OR INDIRECT DAMAGES, IN CONNECTION WITH THE GOODS OR SERVICES PROVIDED BY ANY PRINCIPAL SUPPLIER BOOKING THROUGH WITTE' OFFICE OR THROUGH THEIR WEB SITE, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LIABILITY FOR ANY ACT, ERROR, OMISSION, INJURY, LOSS, ACCIDENT, DELAY OR IRREGULARITY WHICH MAY BE INCURRED THROUGH THE FAULT, NEGLIGENCE, WILFUL ACTS, OMISSIONS OR OTHERWISE OF SUCH SUPPLIER, OR OF ANY SUPPLIER OR THEIR RESPECTIVE EMPLOYEES, AGENTS, SERVANTS, OR REPRESENTATIVES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THEIR FAILURE TO DELIVER OR THEIR PARTIAL OR INADEQUATE DELIVERY OF SERVICES, FUEL INCREASES, AND OTHER MATTERS OUTSIDE OF WITTE CONTROL, AND PARTICIPANT HEREBY EXONERATES WITTE FROM ANY LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO THE SAME.

Witte, its agents, sponsors, organizers and employees shall not be responsible for any injury, loss, damage, accident, delay, irregularity or expense arising from strikes, weather, sickness, acts of war or terrorism, governmental restrictions or regulations or from any act or omission on the part of any individual or company furnishing transportation, accommodations or any other services to the tour participants; absent gross negligence, Witte shall not be responsible for any injuries, death, damages, loss or delay by any means of transportation or by reason of any event beyond its actual control.

Weather conditions, including but not limited to the presence or absence of snow, sunshine, and rainfall are not guaranteed to occur or not occur, and are outside of Witte's control. Volcanic eruptions, ash clouds, and wind may be characterized as an adverse weather condition or a natural disaster by suppliers and your travel insurance company, which is beyond the control of Witte.

Witte shall not assume any responsibility for any air and/or ground schedule changes.

Witte reserves the right to make alterations in the itinerary as it deems necessary.

Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" means, in relation to Witte, any circumstances beyond the reasonable control of Witte, (including, but without limitation, acts of God, explosion, tidal waves and flood, tempest, forceful wind, earthquakes, fire or accident, hostilities, war or threat of war declared or undeclared, acts or threats of terrorism, sabotage, insurrection, riots, strikes, civil disturbance, requisition, epidemic, sickness, quarantine, government intervention, invasion, act of foreign enemies, mobilization, embargo, weather conditions, defects in machinery and vehicles, delay, wildlife, contamination by radio-activity from any nuclear fuel or from any nuclear waste, or other untoward occurrences).

Witte shall not be deemed to be in breach of these terms and conditions or otherwise be liable to you, by reason of delay in performance, or by non-performance, of any of its obligations hereunder to the extent that any such delay or non-performance is due to any Force Majeure.

If Witte, and/or any of its travel suppliers, are affected by Force Majeure, they shall be entitled to, and may in their sole and absolute discretion, vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the trip. Payment of any refund by Witte to you as a result of the non-performance of any obligations due to Force Majeure shall remain in its sole and absolute discretion, although Witte shall use its reasonable efforts to reimburse you where possible. However, Witte shall be entitled to deduct from any refund recoverable the reasonable actual and potential costs to Witte of the Force Majeure and applicable cancellation fees.

Regarding civil unrest, once Witte has investigated the prevailing situation, as it deems fit, it shall remain in Witte's sole and absolute discretion whether to proceed with the trip. You may in such circumstances cancel the trip subject to Witte's and each supplier's terms and conditions.

In case of insufficient participation, geopolitical, or natural cause, or other circumstances beyond its control to the extent travel services cannot be provided wholly or partially, Witte may cancel the tour. In such cases, Witte will use its best efforts to supply alternative services and accommodations, and no refunds will be granted provided that the alternatives are comparable to the original services and accommodations included in the tour cost. In the event of cancellation of the tour by Witte, its liability will be limited to a refund in full of all monies paid by the participants. If available, Witte will offer an alternative trip, which the participants may accept or reject.
